Impartiality Policy Statement

Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd is the legal entity responsible for certification activities; reference to Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd in this Policy and Public Statement refers to these legal entities.

Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd its Directors, Staff and Sub-contractors fully understands the importance of impartiality in undertaking its Certification Activities. Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd will therefore ensure that in all its dealings with clients or potential clients all employees or other personnel are and will remain impartial. To ensure that impartiality is both maintained and can be demonstrated the following principals have been established.

- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd Certificates are only issued following a review by an independent authorised and competent member of the management team (who has not been involved in the audit) to ensure that no interest shall predominate
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd does not offer (and has never offered) management system consultancy or any other form of consultancy to companies or individuals.
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd does not offer (and has never offered) an internal audit service to its certified clients .
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd does not own or have any interest (financial or otherwise) in any other company that offers certification or management system consultancy services.
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd does not have (and will not form) any relationships with companies who offer consultancy or other services that can be construed as having an impact on the certification services provided by Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd. Any proposed relationship between Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd and any other company will undergo a risk assessment by the Committee for Impartiality prior to that relationship being formalised. Any current relationships with companies, organisations and individuals will be risk assessed on a regular basis to ensure that the relationship does not impact upon the impartiality of the certification process.
- Individuals employed by or otherwise contracted to Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd are required to document and record their current and past relationships with all companies. Any situation past or present, which may present a potential conflict of interest, is required by Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd to be declared. Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd will use the information to identify any threats to impartiality and will not use that individual in any capacity unless they can demonstrate that there is no conflict of interest.
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd will not allocate a member of staff or sub-contractor to a management system audit where any past relationship has existed. Exceptionally and at the discretion of the Directors or Certification Manager, an individual or sub-contractor may be allocated to a management system audit where a past relationship has existed but there has been no relationship for a minimum of 2 years.
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd does not and will not offer any commission, ('finders fees' or other inducements) to any individual or company.
 1. The terms and conditions of any such referral are clearly established and can be demonstrated and it can also be demonstrated that the fee is for a referral and the fact that a commission has been paid will in no way effect the outcome of an audit.
 2. A risk assessment (to establish the potential for an unacceptable threat to impartiality) has been carried out on the process through which any such payment is made to an individual or organisation (normally a consultant) requesting the commission for referrals.
 3. All such payments are documented, recorded, and traceable and accompanied by a purchase order and invoice

Impartiality Policy Statement

- Overall the certification of companies who supply a service to Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd is not deemed to be an unacceptable threat to conflict of interest. However, certification of a company in partnership with whom Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd provides a direct service is deemed to be an unacceptable Impartiality Policy.
- Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd recognize that the source of revenue for a certification body is the client paying for certification, and that this is a potential threat to impartiality. Therefore Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd is a self-financed independent organisation, with a number of controls to ensure that impartiality is retained. To obtain and maintain confidence, it is essential that Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd certification decisions are based on objective evidence of conformity or nonconformity, and that any decisions made are not influenced by other interests or by other parties. Certification decisions are made and signed for by a competent Certification Manager who was not responsible for the audit and was not a member of the audit team Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd recognizes that threats to impartiality include the following.
 - Self-interest threats arising from a person or body acting in their own interest.
 - Self-review threats arising from a person reviewing the work that they have conducted themselves.
 - Familiarity (or trust) threats arising from a person becoming too familiar with or too trusting of another, instead of seeking audit evidence.
 - Intimidation threats arising from a person having a perception of being coerced openly or secretly, such as a threat to be replaced or reported to a supervisor.

Public Statement (as it appears on Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd's website)

Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd its Director, Managers, Staff and others involved in the Certification of Organisations fully understand the importance of impartiality in undertaking its Certification Activities.

Thandela Certification Services (Pty) Ltd will therefore ensure that in its dealings with clients or potential clients, all employees or other personnel involved in Certification Activities are, and will remain, impartial.
